Approve Samples

This option is only for Sales People. When they login they are directly taken to this menu. Here they can view reports, approve or reject them. If they approve then the customer will receive an email alert that these reports are ready. The customer can view the reports only after the relevant sales person approves the reports. (This check can be removed on request of the sales person, so the customer receives the report directly).

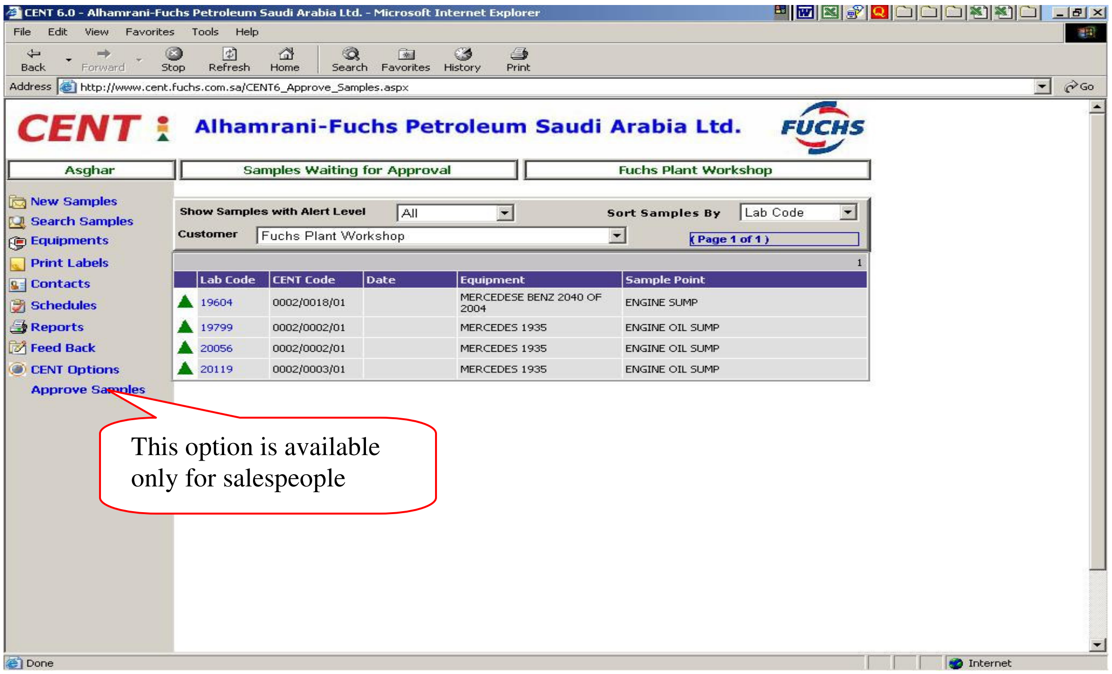

Fig 23

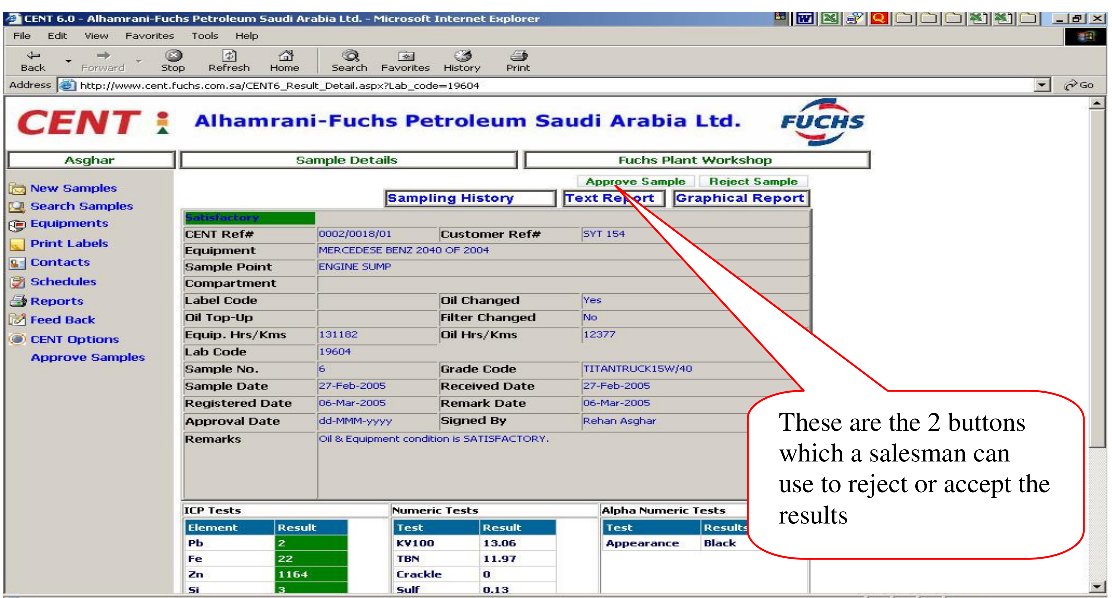

Fig 24